

General tariff

(Tariff "22")

Effective 1st January 2024

Applies to: the performance of copyright music within PRS for Music's repertoire at functions, events and premises which are not within the scope of other tariffs published by PRS for Music.

Royalty Rates

Where the music user has applied for and obtained a PRS for Music licence before musical performances commence, the standard royalty rate will be charged and payable for the first year of the licence.

Where the music user has not applied for and obtained a PRS for Music licence before musical performances commence, the first year royalty rate will be charged and payable for the first year of the licence.

After the first year of the licence, in either case, the standard royalty rate will be charged and payable.

For performances given in church halls, schools and similar premises operated or otherwise not for profit by voluntary persons the Society will at its discretion allow a rebate of one-third on royalties' payable under this tariff.

Where the £ currency symbol is used in this tariff it refers to the Gibraltar Pound.

On Account Payments

Royalties due under tariffs 1.1, 1.2, 12.1 and 12.2 are payable on account and annually in advance at the start of the licence year. The on account charge will be based on an estimate of the particulars required for calculating the royalty due in respect of the licence year and the charge may be adjusted after the Licensee has furnished the Society with details of the actual particulars required for calculating the royalty due. The actual particulars in respect of any licence year will generally form the estimated particulars for the on account charge for the ensuing licence year, however, should the Licensee fail to furnish the actual particulars, the Society reserves the right to make a reasonable estimate of the particulars and to invoice the Licensee accordingly.

14. CONDITIONS

The tariff is published for general information; publication does not constitute an offer to grant a licence. The royalty applicable to any performance or series of performances will be determined by PRS for Music on the basis of all the relevant circumstances. In particular, this tariff is not intended to be exhaustive and for performances which in PRS for Music opinion fall outside those contemplated below, rates will be quoted on application.

An applicant for a licence must give whatever information is necessary to enable PRS for Music to determine the royalty, either in terms of this tariff or otherwise if inappropriate.

For performances given in church halls, schools and similar premises operated or otherwise not for profit by voluntary persons the Society will at its discretion allow a rebate of one-third on royalties payable under this tariff.

15. PAYMENT OF ROYALTIES

Royalties are payable annually in advance at the commencement of each licence and then on each renewal date for the licence in accordance to PRS for Music's current tariff.

16. VALUE ADDED TAX

Every licensee under PRS for Music's tariffs will pay to PRS for Music in addition to the royalty due, a sum in respect of Value Added Tax calculated at the relevant rate on the royalty payable.

17. DEFINITIONS

Aircraft of the licensee means any aircraft registered in the Bahamas on which the licensee does, or (where such acts are otherwise unlicensed by the Society) authorises another to do (in relation to any work within the Society's repertoire) any of the acts restricted by copyright.

Amusement machines (computer, video and other) means machines known as, for example: amusements with prizes; amusements-with-gift; skill with prize; fruit or gaming machines; games, quiz and similar machines, whether or not capable of being operated by the insertion of a coin or token.

Annual expenditure on the provision of music by performers means the total of gross salaries, gross wages; plus fees, expenses or other emoluments paid to performers (excluding any disc jockeys)

Audio juke box means a machine (other than a video juke box) for playing recorded music and capable of being operated by the insertion of a coin or token.

Background Music means music when performed by compact disc ("CD") player, digital music device, record player, tape player, or video player otherwise than for featured purposes, or radio or television set operated on the premises or diffused through a loud-speaker from another part of the premises or a source outside the premises.

Boarding and/or disembarkation music means music within the PRS for Music's repertoire other than in-flight entertainment music, which is performed via loudspeakers, whether or not in conjunction with works outside PRS for Music's repertoire, as passengers board and/or disembark from an aircraft, or while an aircraft is on the ground, or as an aircraft takes off or lands.

Music on hold means music played by mechanical means attached to a telephone switchboard so as to be audible to incoming callers before they are connected to an internal extension. It does not extend to any music audible on any Premium Rate Service number.

Passenger means an individual who travels (whether or not for valuable consideration) on an aircraft of the Licensee and, for the avoidance of doubt, includes an employee of the Licensee.

Passenger who takes up the option of in-flight entertainment music means each passenger who listens to in-flight entertainment music on an aircraft, irrespective of whether such passenger listens to in-flight entertainment music for all or only part of a flight. The total number of passengers who take up the option of in-flight entertainment music is found by taking a percentage of the total number of passengers.

Payments to performers means gross salaries, gross wages; plus fees, expenses or other emoluments paid to performers (excluding any disc jockeys); and gross fees (net of any VAT) paid to third parties for the services of performers.

Performers means singers and performers of musical instruments and includes orchestra conductors or leaders, whether or not they combine in their performance other activities such as dancing or acting as comperes.

Record, compact disc and/or tape-player means any gramophone, compact disc, tape or cassette-player, or other mechanical/electronic device for playing musical works, except a video player, or a contrivance, such as a juke box, capable of being operated by the insertion of a coin or token.

The Society means the Performing Right Society Ltd

The Society's repertoire means all and any musical works (including any words associated therewith), the public performing rights in which are controlled by the Society or by any of the societies in other countries with which the Society is affiliated.

Video juke box means a machine for playing recorded music synchronised with video or similar visual display and capable of being operated by the insertion of a coin or token.

Video player means any equipment for exhibiting videograms, whether on tape or disc, except video players capable of being operated by the insertion of a coin or token.
